DEATH OF MISS ELLA CHANDLER.

At about 8 o'clock last Thursday at the family home on South Pleasant street; the pure, young spirit of Miss Ella Chandler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Y. Chandler, passed from its earthly tenement to the sweet rest and joys of the life beyond. While the condition of her health had been such as to cause the family great anxiety, the visitation came with a degree of suddenness which intensified beyond the conception of any except those to whom she was dearest, the deep anguish of their hearts.

The funeral was held at the family residence, 119 South Pleasant Street, at 4 o'clock Friday p. m., conducted by Rev. W. B. McGarity, after which the cherished form was laid to rest in the new cemetery, the general esteem in which the fair young girl was held being evidenced by the large attendance of friends at the funeral.

Miss Ella was born at Campbellsville, Kentucky, but nearly all the years of her life had been spent here. She was 19 years, 11 months and 18 days of age. From the earliest years of her childhood she had been with those who knew her an ideal of all that is best and sweetest in human character, and no purer spirit than hers ever passed from this life to the realms of Paradise. Her home life was especially a sublime example of duty and affection, her devotion to her parents, and consideration for their comfort and pleasure, being one of the prettiest characteristics of her nature.

No one at an age so tender could have left a deeper impression upon those who knew her than did she, whom old and young both admired and loved.

The perfume of the fragrant flower could not linger more delicately about the garden than will the memory of this lovely girl, who is so deeply mourned. Comforting deeds and messages reached the loved and stricken parents from every direction, and though the sweetest thoughts—those of gentle and sympathetic friends—proved but a feeble mitigant for such a burden, they faced the trial bravely. The Mirror unites with the many friends of the family in assurances of earnest sympathy. Hillsboro Evening Mirror.
